Example : Marie S.Curie IF 2019 Host in Political Economy in the EU for Expression of Interest

Professor Bernd Theilen, established at the Universitat Rovira I Virgili (Tarragona, Spain), is interested in receiving Expressions of Interest of potential candidates for the Marie Skłodowska – Curie Individual Fellowship (MSCA – IF) 2019 call.

The overarching goal of our group is to investigate economic and political determinants of the European integration process. Our research consists of 3 pillars:

- -Economic modelling of EU policies
- -Econometric analysis of ongoing processes
- -The derivation of policy recommendations to achieve further integration or to revert integration threats

Examples of processes and policies that have been analysed are: Capital Tax Harmonization in the EU; Coordination of Fiscal Policies in the EU; Voluntary Tax Compliance; Political and Economic Determinants of Integration Support; Immigration in the EU.

For the Marie Curie IF call of 2019, we are looking for postdoc(s) with experience in:

- Data analysis applying standard econometric techniques to panel data;
- Econometric Programs (preferably Stata);
- A PhD in Economics or Political Sciences.

We are looking for talented and innovative young scientists, strongly committed to high quality frontier research and able to add new insights to the existing URV core expertise. Only candidates with an outstanding record of research achievements and publications in top-quality journals will be considered

URV as Hosting Institution located at Scientific Campus of Universitat Rovira i Virgili (Tarragona, Spain), has use of all the technical and scientific facilities for carry out this project.
